

Welcome to this software.

Version effective date: June 27,2022

We take your privacy very seriously.

We are committed to protecting the privacy of our users ("Users" or "You"). This Privacy Policy ("this Policy") is designed to explain to you how we collect, store, use and manage this information when you use our services. This information includes personal information you provide to us or related information collected through our mobile application terminals. Please note that the scope of this policy is limited to information submitted to or collected by the software when you use our services.

We will collect and process your data, including your personal information, based on your consent in the manner set out in this policy.

1. Information we collect

In order to provide you with better services, we will collect your relevant data and information to the extent permitted by law and only when you use certain functions or services.

In the process of providing services, in order to ensure that you can use the product functions normally, this product applies to the system for some or all of your following permissions. Before applying, we will ask for your consent. You can choose to "allow" or "prohibit" the permission to apply. After your authorization, we will open the relevant permissions. You can cancel the authorization in the system at any time. After you cancel the authorization, you will not be able to use the relevant business functions, but it will not prevent you from using other functions.

The calling of system privacy permissions by various business functions is as follows (this product does not necessarily use all the following permissions, only on the premise that you can use the product functions normally, apply for some or all of the following permissions, if you do not use the functions will not apply for permission).

When you use the software, we may collect and record certain information, such as your product unique identifier, hardware type, media access control ("MAC") address, International Mobile Equipment Identity ("IMEI"), your operating system ("OS") version, the name of your device and your location (based on your Internet Protocol ("IP") address, SIM country code, GPS). This information helps us troubleshoot issues and understand overall user usage trends.

Except as otherwise agreed in this policy, we will not share your information with any third party.

2. How we use information

We collect user information for the purpose of improving service quality and user experience. For this purpose, we may use your information for:

- (1) To operate and improve our services;
- (2) Understand you and your preferences to enhance your experience and enjoyment of using our services;
- (3) Provide and deliver the products and services you require;

(4) Sending information related to you, including confirmations, technical notices, updates, security warnings, support and administrative information;

3. Information disclosure

We have no right to disclose all or part of your information except in the following circumstances:

- (1) To protect the personal or property safety of others;
- (2) To prevent or resolve online fraud;
- (3) To maintain the legal rights and interests of the software;
- (4) According to the provisions of laws and regulations, or to comply with the requirements of government departments and judicial authorities; usually the aforementioned requirements are to protect network security and protect the rights, property and safety of us, our users and third parties.

4. Information security

We use reasonable measures to prevent loss, misuse, unauthorized access or disclosure of information. For example, in some services, we will use encryption technology (such as SSL) to protect the personal information you provide. But please understand that (in the Internet industry) even if you do your best to strengthen security measures, it is not always possible to ensure that information is 100% secure. You need to understand that the systems and communication networks you use to access our services may have problems due to factors beyond our control.

5. Information storage and retention

You understand and agree that we will store your personal information collected and generated during domestic operations in the People's Republic of China in accordance with relevant laws and regulations. At present, we will not transmit the above information overseas. If we need to transmit it overseas, we will follow relevant national regulations or ask for your consent.

6. Manage personal information

We attach great importance to the management of your personal information, and do our best to protect your rights related to your personal information, so that you have the ability to protect your privacy and information security.

You can revoke or manage your authorization through the function of the mobile terminal device or in the application rights management. However, please understand that each business function requires some basic personal information to be completed. When you withdraw your consent or authorization, we cannot continue to provide you with the services corresponding to the withdrawal of consent or authorization, and will no longer process your corresponding personal information. However, your decision to withdraw your consent or authorization will not affect the previous processing of personal information based on your authorization.

You can view the entire content of this Privacy Policy at any time on the "My -Privacy Policy" page.

7. Revision and notice of privacy policy

In order to provide you with better services, our products will be updated and changed from time to time, and we will revise this Privacy Policy from time to time. These revisions form part of this Privacy Policy and have the same effect as this Privacy Policy.

After this Privacy Policy is updated, we will issue an updated version on the product. If such changes will lead to substantial derogation of the user's rights under this policy, we will remind you of the updated content through the software before the changes take effect, so that you can timely Read the latest version of this Privacy Policy.

In such a case, by continuing to use our services, you agree to be bound by the revised policy.
